THANK YOU

To our families and friends for their love and support.

To our generous Donors, without whom we could not produce such a professional show:

Lise & Robert Adatto Lynn & Les Bider Nessim Bouskila Memorial Charitable Fund Elbaz Family Foundation Cecile & Ed Gromis Beverly Gruber Corinne Sands Betsy & Simon Timsit

To Sheryl Goldman, Amy Rabin, and the security staff at Temple Beth Am for the use of their facilities for auditions and rehearsals.

To Marcello & Summer Cacciagioni and everyone at Encore Rentals for building our set.

To Sheldon Lane, Gayle Hooks, and our tech crew at The Nate Holden Performing Arts Center for their time and technical assistance.

To Rachel Ross for lending us some items for our set.

To the President and Board of Congregation Kahal Joseph for hosting the JWRC's 10th Anniversary Gala in May and to Peni Bouskila for making the connection.

To Amy Ritz, Neely Irwin, Linda Korn, Kirby Zucker, and their committees for organizing our beautiful Gala.

To our stage crew, refreshment sellers, and security personnel for their hard work and attention to detail.

To everyone who helped us out using their various talents. We appreciate it more than we can say!

The Cast and Crew

Neely Irwin (Tevye)

Neely is overjoyed to be appearing in her second JWRC production. In last year's Into the Woods she played the ultimate "Mommy Dearest," Cinderella's Stepmother. Since the age of 7, when she fell in love with Fiddler and the wonderful world of musical theater, Neely longed to take on one of America's most beloved male characters. Only in an all-female theater company would she ever get to play her ultimate "bucket list" role of Tevye! An avid long distance challenge for charity walker (Avon 39), pasta connoisseur, an Executive Skincare consultant for Rodan & Fields, and Beachbody Coach, Neely enjoys quoting Star Wars films and playing Mahjongg. She would like to thank Margy and the JWRC and her amazing family and friends for their love and support.

Nili Isenberg (Golde)

Nili's participation in this year's production is in honor of her father, Charlie Schiffman, may his memory be for a blessing (z"l). In many ways, Charlie was much like Tevye: a family man, a lover of God and tradition, a leader of the community, and funny, with a beautiful voice and a heart of gold. Daddy, we miss you so much and wish we could show you the DVD of this incredible production, since you wouldn't have been allowed to be in the audience, anyway... But we feel you are here with us. Don't worry, I won't tell anyone.

Chaya'le Komar (Tzeitel)

Chaya'le first performed as Pish-Tush in the first JWRC production, The Mikado, and is thrilled to be back after a 10-year hiatus. Over the years she has performed with many theater groups, including Raise Your Spirits and Kol Neshama. When not on stage, Chaya'le is both a photographer and proud stay-at-home Mama to her adorable daughter, Hodaya. She thanks her number one fan and husband, Yanky, for all his love and support. Many thanks to Margy and the cast for making the experience so wonderful. Chaya'le hopes you all enjoy viewing the show as much as she enjoys performing it.

Shira Bouskila (Hodel)

Shira is thrilled to be joining her JWRC family once again in Fiddler on the Roof. She previously performed in Into the Woods (The Witch), The Drowsy Chaperone (Gangster #2), Les Misérables (Gavroche), and Me & My Girl (Ensemble). Shira is currently studying musical theater at Santa Monica College and is excited to be pursuing her dreams of someday being on Broadway!! She would like to thank her family and friends, who have supported her throughout her crazy journey, and she would especially like to thank Margy for showing her what true devotion to the theater is and for giving her the opportunity of a lifetime.

Michelle Barton (Chava)

Michelle is delighted to be a part of her first JWRC production. When she isn't reading her books, milking the cow, or thinking about Fyedka, she is teaching third graders and serving as the Literacy Coordinator at Pressman Academy and pursuing a doctorate degree from UCLA in Educational Leadership. Rehearsing for Fiddler has been a welcome distraction from her course work and has brought her immense joy this year. Michelle is grateful to Margy, Reyna, and the entire cast and crew for their guidance and encouragement. She would especially like to thank her husband, Brandon, and her friends and family for their patience and love during this hectic and exciting time in her life.

Nina Adler (Motel)

This is Nina's sixth year participating in the JWRC. Previous shows include Once Upon A Mattress (Lady Larkin), Guys & Dolls (Benny Southstreet), The Pirates of Penzance (Sister), Joseph (Brother), and The Drowsy Chaperone (Kitty). Nina would like to thank Margy, Jazmon, Debra, and Reyna for making this production possible! Big thank you to her family for their support. Without their help balancing, Nina would be "as shaky as a Fiddler on the Roof."

Kelila Siciliano (Perchik)

Kelila is thrilled to be in her 10th JWRC production and even more excited that she is playing another revolutionary. Kelila would like to thank all the women who have been integral in the JWRC over these last ten years. Without each of them, she would not be who she is today. Thank you to all the women in her life outside of the JWRC, and most importantly a HUGE thank you to her little family: Frank, Yoella, and Dov!

Jessica Fauman (Yente)

This is Jessica's fifth production with the JWRC (clearly she's hooked). When not making matches, Jessica is a palliative care social worker. As always, many thanks to Margy for creating this unique opportunity for us and to the fabulous women of the JWRC, both on and off the stage.

Batsheva Frankel (Lazar Wolf)

After appearing clean-shaven as Nicely-Nicely Johnson in Guys & Dolls and Chief Sitting Bull in Annie Get Your Gun, with a suave pencil mustache as Feldzieg the Producer in The Drowsy Chaperone, and a Mark Twainian 'stache as a Narrator in Into the Woods, Batsheva is excited to sport a full-on beard in Fiddler. She is grateful to Margy and Co. for the opportunity to play such a fun array of roles! In addition to performing, Batsheva has been directing theater as well as teaching acting and improvisation for over 30 years.

Naz Farahdel (Fyedka)

Naz is truly honored to be part of this year's Fiddler cast. As a current law student, having this creative outlet has proven to be the perfect balance in her life. The world of theater has been a reccurring theme in Naz's life, where she made her acting debut at the age of 7 as a reindeer in A Christmas Carol. Her passions include food, foreign films, farmers' markets, and hosting dinner parties. She feels truly blessed to be surrounded by such strong, talented, and humble women in this year's cast. Naz would like to thank Margy and the JWRC cast for the love, laughs, and sisterhood they have provided this year. L'Chaim!

Daphne Orenshein (Mordcha)

Proud wife and mommy, teacher of 24 years, power-walker, Mahjongg instructor, math-loving tutor, and volunteer at Cedars, Daphne found she had too much time on her hands and then discovered the JWRC! She has been happily singing, acting, and dancing in JWRC productions over the last 8 years and finally feels complete. Yasher koach to Margy and her crew for putting on yet another incredible show for the community to enjoy! Daphne dedicates this show to her late grandmothers (Nettie and Evelyn), who always enjoyed her antics, and to the late Sonia Slavin, who appreciated the arts and supported the JWRC's shows religiously. Thank you to the awesome ladies of the world.

Juli Shanblatt (Avram)

This is Juli's eighth production with the JWRC. She previously appeared in Guys & Dolls (Arvide), The Pirates of Penzance (Major General Stanley), Annie Get Your Gun, Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Me & My Girl, Les Misérables, and Into the Woods (Mysterious Man). In "real life" Juli is an extremely nerdy Calculus, Physics, and Spanish teacher at Bais Yaakov and YULA (could someone out there please grade papers for her?). Juli thanks her husband, Neal, her daughters Rochel, Esti, and Mimi, her mother, and her mother-in-law for continuing to put up with all her shenanigans.

Stefanie Etshalom (The Rabbi)

Stefanie is thrilled to be in her 9th consecutive JWRC production! She has loved every moment of these shows and appreciates the perks of singing and dance lessons, exposure to the theater arts, bonding with a talented group of women, much needed "me time," and instant stardom (in her own mind!). Stefanie thanks her five wonderful children and amazing husband for being so supportive of this fabulous creative outlet!

Michaly Lahat (Mendel)

Michaly is honored and excited to be a part of the Fiddler cast in her third JWRC production. As the granddaughter of Holocaust survivors and great-granddaughter of people who had to flee Tzarist Russia, it is an honor to tell this sacred and heartwarming story along with such a fabulous cast and crew. Michaly has an MSW from San Diego State University and works as a medical social worker at Children's Hospital Los Angeles. Thanks to Margy and the entire cast for sharing your time, talent, warmth, and humor. To Life!

Noa Kligfeld (Shprintze)

Noa is a freshman at Shalhevet High School and is thrilled to be in her first JWRC production! Previous shows include Oliver!, The Sound of Music (Liesl), Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (Narrator), Grease (Sandy), and many more. When she's not at rehearsal, Noa loves to read and participate in Model Congress. Many thanks to Margy, Reyna, and the whole cast and crew!

Danya Helperin (Bielke)

Danya is excited to be part of the JWRC production for the first time. She is currently in 8th grade at Gindi Maimonides Academy and enjoys dancing, reading, and watching TV. Danya would like to thank her friends and family for their support and Margy for giving her this amazing opportunity.

Rivka Spira (The Constable)

Three years with the JWRC should make it a tradition! With six boys at home to model the perfect guy for her, Rivka enjoys taking on new identities. When she's not playing a guy, she loves being a speech-language pathologist to children of all ages. Rivka thanks her husband for maintaining law & order in the house while she's on patrol and she salutes Margy, Reyna, Jazmon, and her wonderful cast friends.Curtains rise, curtains set!

Clarissa Neydavoud (Fruma-Sarah / Fredel)

After too many years away from the stage, Clarissa is thrilled to be making her JWRC debut in one of her favorite shows! She has taught piano at her studio for more years than she can count (after receiving her B.M. in Piano Performance/Child Pedagogy from Carnegie-Mellon). She was also a Music Specialist at Sinai Akiba Academy. Clarissa's former roles include Cabaret (Fraulein Schneider), Once upon a Mattress (Queen Aggravain) and All about Eve (Eve). Endless gratitude goes to her hubby, Homayoun, for his love and support, to her son, Ariel (a professional musical theater performer), for being so inspirational, to the amazing Margy and her team (especially Reyna) for this opportunity, and to all her talented castmates for making every moment so enjoyable! PEARLS PEARLS PEARLS

Jessica Kurzban (Grandma Tzeitel)

Jessica is thrilled to be making her first appearance as a woman in a JWRC production (even if it's only in a dream). While playing Javert in Les Misérables was a major lifetime high, getting to share with the world the little old lady who lives in her head is a close second. Jessica loves hanging out with the incredibly talented and all-around remarkable women of the JWRC. And she is, with all her heart and soul, forever grateful to her husband and children for supporting this continuing adventure.

Maya Rozov (Constantine / Mirala)

Maya is so excited to be in her first JWRC production with the incredibly talented and special Fiddler cast. She attended Loyola Law School and has been practicing as an attorney for the past year. Maya loved singing at a local jazz club in Hollywood but had to take a break while she was in school. She is overjoyed to have music and theater in her life again. Her passions include talking about and eating cheese and sushi (separately, of course), spending time with friends and family, watching Shark Tank, 60 Minutes, and The Goldbergs (hilarious Jewish mom humor), and dreaming about going to Israel. She would like to thank Margy and the entire cast for a magical and memorable experience!

Sari Abrams (Yussel)

This is Sari's third appearance on stage with the JWRC, having performed in Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Les Misérables. Of course, she was also on stage for Into the Woods, but was hidden by Rapunzel's Tower and Jack's House! She is thrilled to be back from behind the scenes, performing in one of her favorite shows and working with such a talented and fun group of women. During the day, Sari is the Director of Parent and Child Education at Pressman Academy. She is married and has three sons and a daughter-in-law. She is especially grateful to her husband, Yosef, for his love and support at all times, but especially during rehearsals for the JWRC show!

Cassi Alter (Herschel / Dmitry / Bottle Dancer)

Cassi is thrilled to be back in this year's JWRC production. She has always aspired to dance with a bottle on her head so this opportunity was too big to pass up! When not at rehearsal, Cassi spends her time running LA Speech Therapy Solutions and making sure dinner gets on the table each night for her family. She wants to thank her husband and kids for once again being so supportive of her foray into show business.

Miriam Feigelstock (Shaindel)

Miriam has loved theater since she was a little girl and always imagined herself performing in one of the JWRC shows. She greatly enjoyed singing, dancing, and acting in high school, summer camp, and college performances many moons ago. When Miriam is not singing and dancing, she works as a Resource Specialist for the Los Angeles Unified School District. It is truly a dream come true to perform live on stage in this capacity. She thanks her amazing husband for his continued support, and her wonderful children who sang, danced, and practiced along with her!

Sheryl Katzovitz (Zelig / Ivan / Bottle Dancer)

After waving the red flag in Les Misérables (bucket list!), Sheryl is back for her second JWRC production. She wants to thank her supersupportive husband, hard-working castmates and choreographers Debra and Baila, and especially Margy, for giving her another iconic role (note to self: cross "bottle dance" off bucket list, too!).

Natalia Held (Hymie / Boris / Bottle Dancer / Ballerina)

This has been a year of many firsts for Natalia: joining the JWRC, moving to the Pico-Robertson community, and, most importantly, becoming a mother. She is a partner at 950 Entertainment and also serves as an event and logistics manager in the entertainment industry. Natalia grew up in San Juan, Puerto Rico and danced professionally at Dramadaza Dance Company. She also received a scholarship to both the Alvin Ailey School of Dance in New York City and Columbia College in Chicago. Whether working in marketing, learning, or being a proud wife and mother, Natalia's true passion will always be performing on stage.

Goldie Geisinsky (Bluma)

Goldie debuted in The Drowsy Chaperone, which exceeded her expectations about being part of a professional theater group. She is thrilled to be back on stage for the most famous Jewish musical of all time! She hopes to make it a "tradition" to be a member of the JWRC for many years. Goldie would like to thank the "Papa" for stepping in as the "Mama" for the "sons" and the "daughters." This could not have happened without him. She also thanks her family and friends for their support. To the cast and crew, all we need to say is...."L'chaim!"

Rochel Shanblatt (Sasha / Faige)

This is the fifth JWRC production with which Rochel has been involved. She appeared on stage in Guys & Dolls (Carina) and Annie Get Your Gun (Little Jake) and worked tech for Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and The Drowsy Chaperone. She participated in stage productions throughout elementary and high school, most notably with her large roles in Bais Yaakov's Halleli productions. Rochel is a sophomore majoring in Linguistics at California State University, Northridge.

Ilana Goldschein (Yaffa)

This is Ilana's second time participating in the JWRC. She also played the role of Jessie in the 2009 production of Annie Get Your Gun. Ilana is excited to be in the cast again. As the Good Book says, "Don't be a chicken." Well it doesn't say that exactly .... but somewhere there is something about a chicken!

Dena Schechter (Nahum)

Dena is excited to be back in her 4th JWRC production. She is especially thrilled this year to share her experience with the group that means so much to her with her oldest daughter. She thanks her husband and two other kids for their patience with all the rehearsals. Their support is priceless.

Ahava Keet (Moishe)

Ahava is absolutely thrilled to be bringing one of her all-time favorite musicals to the stage in her JWRC debut. She has always loved the theater, whether it was forcing her little brother to be in her infamous living room plays or starring in The Wizard of Oz (Scarecrow) and Annie (Annie) with A Time For Dance. Ahava takes piano and singing lessons, plays guitar, and writes songs. She would like to thank G-d for all the good He does for her, her family, her phenomenal singing teacher Agy, and her parents for not only supporting her but believing in her before she believed in herself. And of course a HUGE thank you to Margy, Reyna, and co. and the insanely talented cast for sharing the amazing experience of bringing Fiddler on the Roof to life, to life, I'chaim! Enjoy the show!

Julie Pinchak (Leeba)

Julie is thrilled to be joining the JWRC this year for her first live theatrical production ever. When not rehearsing, Julie can be found singing under her breath, walking her dog, or working as a systems engineer at The Aerospace Corporation. She would like to thank all of her family and friends for their support. She's had a wonderful time learning from all of the talented ladies of JWRC and would like to thank Margy and team for this wonderful opportunity. Enjoy the show!

Sara Schechter (Shloime / Yvgeny)

Sara is excited to be in her first JWRC Production and can appreciate the differences of performing with her mom from her experiences in school and summer camp plays. Sara's school performances include The Prince of Egypt, The Jungle Book, Peter Pan, and The Wizard of Oz. She also appeared in Oklahoma!, Seussical the Musical, and Grease at Catskills West Summer Camp. She would like to thank her parents for allowing her to participate in this JWRC production.

Laurel Schramm (Rivka)

After nine years of enjoying JWRC productions from the audience with her daughter, Tirtza, the 10th anniversary celebration last spring made Laurel realize, "If not now, when?" By day she is a pediatrician in her office; by night she is returning pages, helping with homework, and rehearsing with a group of amazingly talented women. She is especially thrilled to be dancing again for the first time since high school. Big thank yous to Dr. David Keene, her office partner, for taking calls on rehearsal nights; her kids Eitan, Tirtza (who will have to sit with her little sisters instead of her Ima for the first time!), Aviya, and Keshet (who would be happy to show you her version of all the dances!), and her wonderful husband, Alec.

Vera Budinoff (The Fiddler)

Born and raised in New York City, Vera studied violin since age five and debuted at Carnegie Hall at age twelve. She has performed with James Galway and Lalo Schifrin and has done live theater with Ed Asner, Harold Gould, Mel Torme, Connie Stevens, and Charo. She has also recorded with The Four Seasons, England Dan, and Helen Reddy. Vera has accompanied several JWRC productions but this is her first time appearing on the stage.

Baila Weiss (Yakov / Mischa / Bottle Dancer / Choreographer)

A graduate of The Victorian College of the Arts in Melbourne, Australia, Baila studied for over a decade with renowned dance teachers and had lead roles in major productions, including A Midsummer Night's Dream, La Sylphide, and Prince Igor. After marrying, Baila started her own dance school and arts camp, teaching multiple dance forms and producing several original productions. After 20 years, Baila left teaching to devote more time to her growing family, and now runs MyBeshert, a matchmaking service she founded within the Persian Jewish community. Baila joins the JWRC for the second year and had a wonderfully nostalgic time choreographing and rehearsing with its talented cast.

Debra Bernstein (Choreographer)

Debra proudly returned to the JWRC to assist in the choreography of Fiddler on the Roof. She previously danced in the JWRC's Annie Get Your Gun and was thrilled to return after a six-year hiatus. Debra studied modern dance, jazz, and Katherine Dunham technique in the performing arts magnet at Hamilton High School and then earned an English literature degree from UCSB. A kindergarten teacher at Yavneh Hebrew Academy, Debra maintains a love for dance and literature. She wishes to thank her husband and three beautiful children for allowing her the opportunity to participate in Fiddler with an inspirational cast of women!

Sharona Motkin (Technical Director)

Sharona is thrilled to be helping with her second JWRC production. She is the Executive Director of Generous Spoonfuls, an Escrow Officer, a Skin Care Consultant, and a Chef. Sharona is excited for a fantastic production and many more shows to come. L'chaim!

Melissa Pritchett (Costumes & Props)

An extremely talented seamstress, costume designer and tailor, Melissa started her own sewing/alterations and costume business, Artisan Redstitch, after working in couture for over a decade. She holds a BA in Technical Theater with an emphasis in costuming, clothing, and textiles from Southern Utah University and worked for the Utah Shakespeare Festival, Utah Opera Company, and New Jersey Shakespeare Festival. Melissa appeared as the Wolf in last year's JWRC production of Into the Woods.

Jazmon DuBrow (Co-Producer / Stage Manager)

Jazmon is thrilled to be back for her sixth show with the JWRC. So happy to be keeping the Tradition alive! She would like to thank her friend, partner, and show-runner Margy for the opportunity to be part of another wonderful show. Mazal tov, you've done it again! Many thanks to the wonderful cast and crew on their hard work and dedication to the show. Break a leg, ladies! Jazmon would like to thank her husband, Ramy, for his unwavering support of this endeavor year after year, and to Chaya Malka and Meira for sharing their Mommy with the JWRC so she can be a part of bringing the show to life. (To Life! L'Chaim!)

Reyna Zack, (Co-Director / Acting & Vocal Coach)

Reyna holds a Bachelor of Music from Temple U. and an MFA from CalArts, both in voice performance. A soprano in the New York Choral Society, she was honored to perform at both Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center and continues to perform around Los Angeles. Favorite roles: Pirates of Penzance (Mabel); Trial By Jury (Angelina); Utopia Limited (Zara); Orfeo ed Euridice (Amore); Fiddler on the Roof (Hodel); The Impresario (Mademoiselle Silverpeal); The Abduction from the Seraglio (Blondie); Dido & Aeneas (Dido); and, of course, Into the Woods with the JWRC (Cinderella)! Raised on classical and jazz music as well as the American musical, Reyna currently teaches private voice lessons, is a photographer, and works in communications for Temple Beth Am.

Margy Horowitz (Co-Director / Co-Producer)

After eleven successful full-length musicals, five incredible parlor night fundraisers, and one unforgettable tenth anniversary gala, Margy can't imagine her life without the JWRC. She had such a great time working with the Fiddler cast this year. Margy is thankful to Debra and Baila for their amazing work on the choreography; to Melissa, for her incredible costumes and props; to Sharona, for taking on so many technical duties this year; and, as always, to her incredible partner-in-crime and friend, Jazmon, for six fantastic years together. Margy is especially thankful to Reyna for dedicating so much time and energy to making Fiddler such a terrific show. Lots of love to her incredibly supportive and wonderful husband and kids, Jeremy, Julia, and Nathan, without whom none of this would be possible.

KELILA —

To a beautiful woman whose TRADITION it is to lead a REVOLUTION. You too were once an outsider in this city, but you've made RADICAL changes. I'm so proud of all of your roles ... especially friend. I hope you never move to Siberia, although I've heard that the SUNRISEs and SUNSETs are beautiful.

To my daughter who reaches for the stars and my sister who already is one!

We love you. Goldie!

Mommy and Devora Rochel

Another great show to notch onto your belt, Though this year your absences have surely been felt. Th's a "wonder of wonders" bringing in a new life, And now you're even busier being a mother, "a daughter, a wife." The so happy to have Chaya Malka as my theater mate. The family "tradition" will continue at this rate. So, "a blessing on your head" for another great play. "L'chaim" and Mazel Tov maybe it'll go to Broadway. Jaz, we're so proud of you and love you, Mom and Dad
